Description

Starting directly in the village at 1,402 m, the cycle path initially heads north towards Taletalm. Far before this, the forest path branches off to the left to the Berglet Höfe at 1,700 metres. From here, take the little-used road from Hochberg to the Unterstalleralm snack station. From the Unterstalleralm, trail no. 15 leads along the high valley floor over the Arntal stream on a partly stony path up to the so-called Restlangarten at 2,241 metres. The rocky, alpine ascent continues over slabs and boulders to the mysterious, dark Schwarzsee lake (follow the markings!). Descend along the same path to the Restlangarten, then turn left onto path 15a, which first leads to one of the most beautiful alpine villages in East Tyrol, the Oberstalleralm, and on to the Unterstalleralm.
