Climbing park Lienz/Hochstein

Description

The climbing park of Lienz is Tyrolean’s largest high rope course and ranks amongst Austria’s most varied rope courses. It provides a great range of adventures to put your own skills to the test, be brave or challenge your muscles. This climbing park is suited for everyone, from beginners to pros. At the Kidspark, even children of at least 2 years can have fun. The individual courses have been classified into three colour-marked categories:

• BLUE courses – easy to moderate - these courses are suited for climbers who are at least 120 cm tall or 6 years old.

• RED courses – difficult - these courses are suited for climbers who are at least 130 cm tall.

• BLACK courses - extremely difficult - the black courses are available to all those who are at least 150 cm tall
