Description

Get from Unterstalleralm to Oberstalleralm directly via route 16 to the Rote Spitze. From the Alpine inn there is a brief section through the forest initially, which later then rises steeply across Alpine pastures. Upon reaching the ridge, the path branches off to the east and gets to the ridge via boulders. Via this route it is somewhat exposed in a wind gap, however this is secured with wire cables. From there it is an easy climb up to the summit
