Description

An asphalt road proceeds to the hamlet of Flatsch in the parish of Bergen. It is recommended that you leave your car here and continue hiking via the forest trail (only authorised personnel are permitted to drive here). For the most part through shaded woodland, this trail proceeds up to the mown mountain pastures in the summer months. Lush blossoms flourish here, as they do on almost all the sunny mountain slopes. You get to the Steinrastl via a relatively flat mountain ridge.
