Description

From the car park at the sports field in the Wallhorn district, this scenic winter hiking trail leads eastwards along an idyllic forest path. Again and again, beautiful views open up onto snow-covered Prägraten am Gletscher and the majestic Venediger Group. The clear winter air and the soft crunch of snow accompany every step.

At around 1,500 metres above sea level, you are rewarded with a magnificent view of the Virgental valley – a moment to pause and enjoy before heading back along the same route.
