Description

The most direct route leads from the Lucknerhaus along the Wendelin-Weingartner Trail to the summit. At the start, the trail winds upward through a series of switchbacks to the “Greiwiesen.” From there, the terrain flattens out somewhat all the way to the “Grei Bühel.” From there, you hike northward along the trail toward the summit slope of the Figerhorn. Finally, you climb the last few meters up the ridge toward the beautiful summit cross!

A special highlight of this hike is undoubtedly the fantastic view of the Großglockner and the surrounding mountain panorama.
