Description

Take the 6-seater gondola lift from the valley floor to the Brunnalm middle station (2055 m). Change there to the second section of the 3-seater chairlift, the Mooserberglift. This lift takes us across the alpine region north of the Weißspitzgruppe to the mountain station near Ochsenlacke (2363 m). Now the hike begins. Via a well-marked path, past a few benches, to the east, you reach the Steinmandl on the summit after approx. 25 minutes on foot. Beautiful view of around 30 "three-thousand metre peaks" and a wide view of the valley. The circular hike continues to the Leppetallenke and the marked hiking trail back to the Ochsenlacke.
