Description

The starting point is the Eisseehütte. From here, follow the path towards Eissee, but turn right onto the prominent stone moraine towards the Seewandspitze. The route winds its way up to the summit of the Seewandspitze via numerous hairpin bends, followed by a moderately steep ascent towards Wallhorntörl. At the signpost just before the pass, turn right – a path close to the ridge now leads to the magnificent panoramic summit at 3,300 metres. The return route takes you over the Wallhorntörl and past the picturesque Eissee back down to the Eisseehütte.
