Description

The ascent is from the parking place "Freizeitzentrum Gries" through the valley Zopatnitzental and takes about 2.5 hours. The hiking trip first begins on an ashpalt road and continues later on a footpath, which mostly leads through the forest. Above the forest border, you cross a bridge on the left side, hike through a slope in serpentines and cross a bridge again below the waterfall. Then follow the markings up to the hut Bergersee Hütte (2.181) and the idyllic mountain like Berger See.
