Description

Since summer 2025, visitors can look forward to a completely redesigned adventure trail in the picturesque fields of Virgen. In the heart of the Hohe Tauern National Park, the new “Path of the Senses” invites visitors to experience nature interactively and with all their senses. Whether families, hiking enthusiasts, or nature lovers—there is something for everyone here. The trail combines playful learning, mindful perception of nature, and relaxing moments to create a special destination.

19 interactive experience stations
