Winter hiking Oswald Kollreider-Wiesenweg artists' path

Description

The winter walking path in a sunny location links the village centre of Kartitsch with St. Oswald. On a total length of around 1.5km, it affords a fabulous all-round view in all directions: into the Hochpustertal, towards the Carnic main Alpine ridge and into the eastern Tyrolean Gailtal, with an excellent view also of the 5 valleys that one can explore from Kartitsch. Resting places all along the path invite you to take a break. A flat walking path that is easy for anyone and offers plenty of panoramic views. Connection possibilities: long-distance hiking trail Dorfberg.
