Description

The starting point for this medium difficulty walk is the centre of Kartitsch. You walk in the direction of Neuwinkl and from there on to the sports centre/ice rink. The path now leads into the Winklertal to the beautiful Stiefbden, which affords a majestic view of the imposing rocky walks and the frozen Obstanser waterfall. The maintained path now continues straight on and branches to the right after crossing the wooden bridge. From here it leads into a dense romantic spruce forest. After leaving the forest behind, the walk continues across snowy meadows and fields towards Winkl and offers a wonderful panoramic view over the whole village. Upon arrival at the Winkl farms, you get back to the centre along the municipal road. Connection possibility: Gailbach circuit and Erschbaumertalweg from the sports centre.
