Description

The access to the actual winter hiking trail first leads along the pavement of the country road in an easterly direction to the bus stop in Wallhorn. (1.3 km)

From there a short ascent to the chapel "Grießer Kapelle", then turn right until you reach a car park.

From there, the trail leads across open terrain (prepared) towards a detached house. Then in a north-westerly direction via a field path moderately steeply up to Wallhorn, and via the municipal road back to the starting point.

Further starting point: from the bus stop "Wallhorn" (walking time: 2h)
