Description

Those of you who are looking for a bit more of a challenge and to put your fitness to the test will be very well catered for on the Feistritz slope. After the start near the school, the slope proceeds along the Schwarzach heading to Feistritz. When you pass the valley station for the Feistritz lift, the slope climbs to the highest point of the tour. Afterwards there is a very challenging descent in serpentine bends to the turning point at Kasselplatz near Hotel Defereggental. Proceed back via the sharply climbing slope to the highest point in Feistritz. From here, pass the St. Leonhard church back to the starting point.
