Beschreibung

From the village an asphalted road leads to the northern edge of the village. Nearly 200 metres above, the path no. 47 via Gripp to the Golzentipp. Along the forest road, later over a steeper path through the forest up to Gripp. At a small mountain hut the forest becomes visibly lighter and narrow, moderately ascending path leads over partly moist mountain meadows further to a small saddle west to the Golzentipp summit. The last section to the right up to the summit is steeper again, but only relatively short!
